

23rd Porter Cup August 5 - 8, 1981

Niagara Gazette Sunday, August 9, 1981

Sigel attacks course early, coasts to title

Normally conservative Jay Sigel attacked the course early in the final round of the Porter Cup and coasted home with a 1-under par 69 for a two-stroke victory over Brian Fogt in the 23rd annual amateur classic. Sigel birdied three of his first five holes to quickly expand his one-stroke lead to four strokes over Bob Lewis, Jr. and Ron Commans, his partners in the threesome.

The 37-year-old insurance man from Berwyn, PA finished the 72-hole tournament with a 6-under par 274 to become the fourth man to win the Porter Cup twice.

The 1981 event featured 108 players, the largest field in tournament history.

CHIP SHOT... Tom Lehman was the 54-hole leader of the U.S. Open three years in a row (1995-1997), but each time failed to win the Championship. He did, however, prevail in the 1996 British Open, the same year in which he was named PGA Tour Player of the Year.
