

50th Porter Cup July 23 - 26, 2008

Niagara Gazette Sunday, July 27, 2008

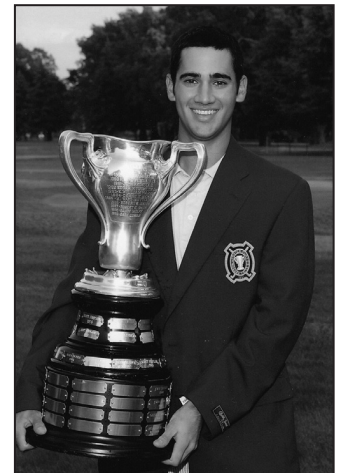

NO STOPPING MITCHELL

With a final-round 69, 21-year-old University of Georgia senior-to-be Adam Mitchell finished at 10-under 270, three strokes better than his 54-hole co-leader, Zack Sucher.

Back-to-back birdies by Mitchell on the 11th and 12th holes and a double bogey from Sucher on No. 13 turned what had been a tight two-player showdown into a comfortable victory for the Chattanooga native.

Fickle weather dampened the week's festivities as thunderstorms washed out Thursday's second round, requiring the field to play 36 holes Friday. Rain halted play again Saturday for nearly two hours before the sky cleared long enough to finish the event.

The tournament was pleased to have several former Champions return to Lewiston for a special dinner to commemorate the golden anniversary. John Konsek, Ward Wettlaufer and Bill Harvey, winners of four of the first five editions of the event, hit ceremonial opening tee shots to start play Wednesday.

Adam Mitchell became the second straight Georgia Bulldog to capture the Porter Cup
