Endycott Rallies to Win Porter Cup

Harrison Endycott Wins 58th Porter Cup

by Mark Gaughan

Harrison Endycott had a big mountain to climb, down four shots to the tournament favorite and the local rooting hero with seven holes to play in the final round of the Porter Cup.

The 20-year-old top Australian amateur golfer was undaunted.

Endycott shot a 3-under 67 in the final round to finish at 14-under 266 for 72 holes, besting Gavin Hall by a single shot.

“I just went and did my thing,” Endycott said. “I thought, I’ve been in these situations before, I know what I’ve got to do. If I can just stay present, play my shots one shot at a time and make some birdies, we’ll see what it does at the end of the day.”

Endycott played the final seven holes in 3-under to chase down Hall, a University of Texas All-America. Endycott, a Sydney native who has gone onto success on the Korn Ferry Tour, shot 3-under 67 to finish 14-under 266. He became the third Australian champion of the Porter Cup.

“It means a lot for a lot of Aussie golfers,” Endycott said. “The Porter Cup is such a known event through Australia and really all world amateurs. I feel privileged to win it.”

Hall, a top 25 world amateur from nearby Rochester, had helped the University of Texas to the NCAA Championship a month earlier. He played the final seven holes 2-over to finish at 13-under. The second-place finish was his fifth straight placing in the top 10 at the Porter Cup.

Endycott, ranked 21st in the world, sank a 40-foot birdie putt bombs on the par-4 14th and the par-3 16th to take the lead.

“Sometimes you need a little bit of luck when you’re holing a 40-footer,” he said. “Yeah, you’ve got to hit a good putt, but you can stand there and hit a good putt to an inch all day. You need that little luck.”

Endycott secured the win with an all-world up and down from the rough behind the 18th green. It was his fifth major amateur win of the year.

“I’ve won before,” he said. “I knew how to win in this situation. But at the same time, I did have to play good at the right time. I managed to do that, and it was nice to get it done.”
