

56th Porter Cup July 23 - 26, 2014

Drakeford holds on for Porter Cup Victory

By Mark Gaughan

Australian Geoff Drakeford played his A game over the first three rounds and had just enough of his best stuff to hold off a slew of stars on his heels in the final round of the 2014 Porter Cup.

The 22-year-old Australian held a three-shot lead into Saturday after rounds of 67, 66 and 68. He never relinquished the lead in shooting a final-round 71 to win by one at 8-under 272.

Tied for second at 7-under were University of Texas star Beau Hossler and University of Virginia star Denny McCarthy. They both ran out of holes.

Hossler showed off the talent that would help him win the Fred Haskins Award as the top collegiate player in the nation and represent the United States in the 2015 Walker Cup. As of 2022, he had more than $8 million in PGA Tour winnings. He shot 68 on the final round.

McCarthy, likewise, a 2015 Walker Cupper, would go on to win the 2015 Porter Cup. He had more than $5 million in official earnings in his first five years on the PGA Tour. McCarthy shot a final-round best 65.
